Year Of Call: 2017

Ravi is a versatile junior barrister with a broad commercial practice that encompasses commercial litigation and arbitration, civil fraud and asset recovery, banking and financial services, and aviation. He is regularly instructed in complex, high-value cases, often with an international dimension, and has significant experience of cases involving interim injunctive relief. He has appeared as sole counsel on a number of occasions in the High Court (Commercial Court and Chancery Division) and regularly appears in the County Court. In 2020, Ravi was seconded for four months to the Litigation & Investigations department of Allen & Overy LLP. During that time, he worked on a variety of commercial, banking and civil fraud matters, including advising clients on obtaining urgent injunctive relief following cyber-attacks and on compliance with worldwide freezing orders.

Highlights of Ravi's practice include the following:
